

Report
Conference on Thai Overseas Going Monks (Dhammaduta)
for Four Continents
13 May, 2018/2561, 09.00-16.00

---

Yours Most Ven. Phraprommasith,
Member of Supreme Sangha Council of Thailand,
Sangha Governor Region 10,
Chairman of Regulatory Office for Overseas Dhammaduta
Bhikkhus
Abbot of Wat Saket Rajvoramahaviharn, Bangkok

I am Phrapanyadhammavides, the assistant abbot to Wat Anandametyarama, the secretary of Thai Sangha Council of Singapore and chairman of organizing committee for the Conference of Thai Overseas Going Monks (Dhammaduta) from four continents. On behalf of Thai Sangha Council of Singapore and Overseas going monks (Dhammaduta), we are greatly honored and delighted to have the Most Venerable Phraprommasith to be here presiding over the grand opening ceremony of this event.

Today, we will be presenting a summary of the outcome from the meeting by Thai Overseas Going Monks from four continents, which was held at Mahachulalongkornrajavidyalaya University from 26-27 March, 2561/2018, the objective of this conference is to set up the strategic plan of propagating Buddhism overseas effectively and efficiently. This conference is held on 13 May, 2561/2018. The numbers of participants are 400 in total and made up of: Thai Overseas Going Monks (Dhammaduta) from four Continents, ecclesiastical monks, the authorities of National Office of Buddhism of Thailand.

Including this, conference is supported by several sectors; The Regulatory Office for Overseas Dhammaduta Bhikkhus, Thai Sangha Council of Singapore, Thai Sangha Councils from four continents, Mahachulalongkornrajavidyalaya University, National Office of Buddhism of Thailand, and Wat Anandametyarama (Thai Buddhist Temple in Singapore).

I look forward to all participating actively at this conference.

Now, let us invite the Most Venerable Phraprommasith to declare this conference open and deliver your speech.

Thank you very much, indeed

Phrapanyadhammavides

Assistant abbot of Wat Anandametyarama,
Secretary for Thai Sangha council of Singapore, Chairperson of Organizing Committee of Conference of Thai Overseas Going Monks
(Dhammaduta) from Four Continents